

For Drill 5, you will adhere to the same rules as Drill 4 except for the attire and the startup locations. Wearing no-gi attire, we want you to start from the top mount and flow freely from there. After each submission, regardless of who catches it, we want you to start from a top/dominant position (mount top, side mount top, or back mount offensive) so we can assess your control and submission skills.